Homeopathy Masterclass with Dr. Julie Geraghty

The National Centre for Integrative Medicine (NCIM) is pleased to announce an inspiring Homeopathy Masterclass!

"Earth, Fire, Water, Stone - Interesting remedies from all Kingdoms"

Date: Saturday 16 March 2019

Time: 10am - 4.30pm

Venue: Penny Brohn UK, Chapel Pill Lane, Pill, Bristol BS20 0HH

Price: £80 (incl. lunch)

Outline of the Day and Biography

Julie Geraghty will present highlights from the past year of prescribing some interesting new remedies, as well as insights into lesser known small remedies. Cases will include a new gemstone remedy, an imponderable, two 'water' cases and several mineral remedies. It should prove to be an exciting day of exploring the natural world through the beautiful lens of Homeopathy.

Julie teaches homeopathy nationally and internationally and offers supervision and appraisals to homeopathic doctors. Julie is the Medical Dean of the Faculty of Homeopathy and runs her own private homeopathic clinic as well as working with the National Centre for Integrative Medicine.

Come and enjoy this beautiful, intimate and interactive space and network with homeopathic colleagues!Future Bristol Masterclass Dates:

> Saturday 18 May 2019 - taught by Geoff Johnson
